Please tell us about anything that particularly impressed you, or anything that you would suggest we improve: Mike M. and Cody were the two installers who came to install our new furnace. They did a very nice job and we appreciate their hard work. They arrived at the expected time and were friendly and courteous to us. They were very willing to answer any questions we had before they started to work and throughout the whole process. They worked very efficiently and were thorough in their work. We really appreciated them taking the time to clean up after themselves as well. They took the time to explain how the new thermostat would work and answered the rest of our questions. It was a good experience working with Mike M + Cody and would like them to know we appreciate everything they did.
