Right Now Heating & Cooling

I want to thank you for the excellent job of your employees on the installation of our new furnace and heat pump, the installation of new insulation in our attic and the cleaning of our entire duct system.

Your team of professional people did the entire job in one Day. Our last furnace took 3 days to complete.

Your workers seemed to have enjoyed working on the installation and mentioned that they really loved their job and were loyal to their employer.

You are extremely fortunate to have people in your organization that are proud to do their work, while being extremely courteous to their customers and each other.

I also want to thank your Sales Representative, Gary Chandler, for his great presentation concerning our needs, as a customer, to provide a system that will serve us for years.

You have an excellent team.

Sincerely,
Peter A. Thompson
